HEAD LINE NEWS

Car-free jamsugyo bridge Doo-Doo Festival

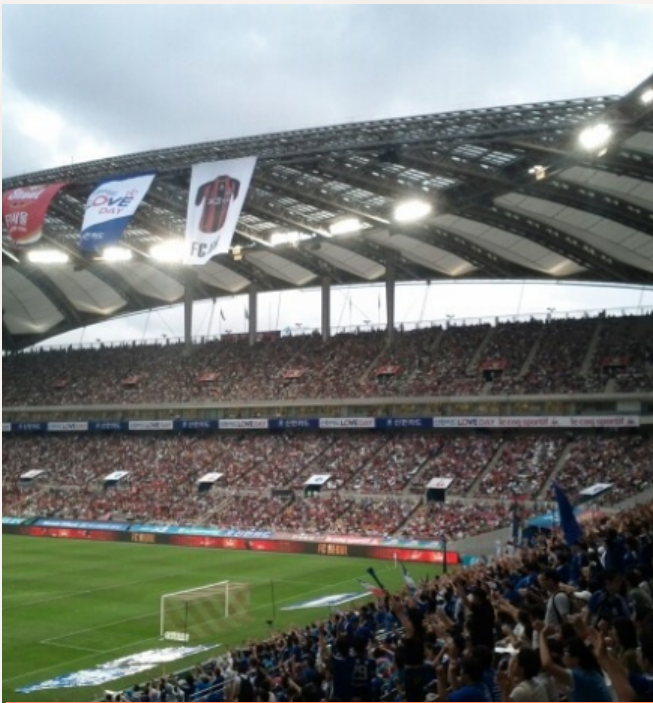

From now until June 23rd, there's a walking festival every Sunday from 1:00 PM to 9:00 PM at Banpo Hangang Park and Jamsu Bridge. Various food trucks and flea markets will be operating, so if you have time, we hope you'll come and visit.

Be careful in the hot weather

As early summer arrives, daytime temperatures are approaching 30 degrees Celsius. We encourage you to apply sunscreen when going out, and if engaging in outdoor activities for extended periods, please remember to stay hydrated.

MUST-EAT PLACE

Recommendations for good restaurants in Seoul in May

부암닭구이

It's a restaurant where you can enjoy charcoal-grilled chicken stir-fry. You can also enjoy various flavors with different seasonings such as salt, soy sauce, and marinade all at once.

Address: 21 Eulji-ro 3-gil, Jung-gu, Seoul

Nanpo Hannam

It's a Korean restaurant that serves unique dishes. You can try dishes like sashimi with aged kimchi, shrimp and potato pancake, stone octopus soy sauce noodles, which are not commonly eaten by Koreans.

Address: 18 Itaewon-ro 49-gil, Yongsan-gu, Seoul

Sochinchin

It's a fusion Chinese restaurant. Their specialty is Chaofan, a Chinese-style fried rice dish, and perhaps because it's located near a university, the portions are generally generous, and the prices are not too expensive.

Address: Seoul, Jongno District, Daemyeong-gil, 39-9 2층

A SPECIAL EVENT IN SEOUL
